India Makes Transformation From “Brain-Drain To Brain-Gain’: Prime Minister

Global Exhibition On Services

New Delhi, India, 24.04.2015, 10:48 Time

USPA NEWS - Prime Minister, Mr. Narendra Modi at the Global Exhibition on Services, at Pragati Maidan, in New Delhi on April 23, 2015. Union Ministers Dr. Harsh Vardhan, Mr. Jagat Prakash Nadda, Mrs. Smriti Irani, Mr. Kalraj Mishra, Mr. Ravi Shankar Prasad, Mrs. Nirmala Sitharaman are also seen.

The Prime Minister, Mr. Narendra Modi, said India had made the transformation from a country worried about its “brain-drain,” to a country that thinks of “brain-gain.” Inaugurating the first Global Exhibition on Services in New Delhi on April 23, the Prime Minister said India should assess its “service” capabilities in the global perspective. He said India had vast potential to meet the skilled manpower needs of the entire world, and called for a careful mapping of global needs, which India could fulfil over the next decade.

Stating that Human Resource is India’s biggest asset, the Prime Minister said India’s development journey should focus on the 65 percent of its population which is below the age of 35. He said that as the world looked for skilled manpower, India had the capability to become a crucial provider of this resource.

The Prime Minister mentioned sectors such as nursing, high-end financial services, arbitration, tourism, music and vegetarian cooking as examples of what India had to offer to the world, besides the already established IT and other core sectors.

Union Ministers Mr. Kalraj Mishra, Mr. JP Nadda, Mr. Ravi Shankar Prasad, Mr. Harsh Vardhan, Mrs. Smriti Irani and Mrs. Nirmala Sitharaman were present on the occasion.
